New Format for the Autodesk Certified User (ACU) Fusion 360 Exam

The ACU Fusion 360 exam is changing from a live-in-the-app format to a selective response format. To ensure this new format meets industry expectations and provides a quality experience to candidates, we're looking for U.S. high school teachers to volunteer their students to take a beta version of the exam.

The beta exam will give K-12 students the opportunity to test their knowledge of the concepts and skills they'll need to take the existing Autodesk Fusion 360 exam.

Preparing Young People for College and Career Success with Damiano Mastrandrea

“It’s important that we design with and not for our students.” We love this nugget of truth from Damiano Mastrandrea, CTE Director at the Brooklyn STEAM Center.

Continued...

In this episode, we dive deep into the student population at the Brooklyn STEAM Center, what foundational pillars are in place to help students thrive, and how to educate and serve traditionally disadvantaged young people. We promise you'll walk away motivated to engage with your students, or colleagues as Damiano would say, in a whole new way.
