Compass: State-of-the-Art Exam Delivery Technology

Certification is possible only if exams can be securely and accurately delivered where and when they are needed. That is where Compass, Certiport's state-of-the-art exam delivery technology comes in.

Compass securely delivers over three million exams a year to schools, universities, commercial learning centers, and individuals. It is a proven and reliable solution that makes Certiport exam deployment and administration secure, simple, and easy. Compass is an excellent exam delivery technology that supports on-premise and browser-based configurations. It is available for Windows, Mac, and Chromebook platforms and is available in 27 languages.

Check out this new video about Compass at www.certiport.com/compass or Certiport's YouTube channel.
